

Homerton Seminars

Find out about the research being done in your college

Every Tuesday at 6pm, just before Formal Hall, a Homerton researcher will talk about their work. Though given by experts in their fields, the talks are aimed at a general audience and do not require any previous knowledge of the subject.

Everyone is welcome to come and listen.

Lent 2012

31 st January	Tom Cantrell	Acting in Documentary Theatre
28 th February	James Attwater	Self-Replication and the Origin of Life
6 th March	Revd Dr John Polkinghorne	The Friendship of Science and Religion
13 th March	ALUMNI SEMINAR Melanie Keene	Science in Wonderland

Leah Manning Room, 6.00 pm

For further information, please contact:
Melanie Keene – mjk32@cam.ac.uk

Homerton College
CAMBRIDGE