The Changemaker Annual Residential Sep 24-29 2023

Select Bibliography

This list is designed for you to dip in and out of, during and after the residential. It's heavily curated, suggesting what we think are some of the more illuminating and thoughtful examples at the moment of each genre. It's also designed based on the certainty that, once you dip in, each text will invariably lead you to more texts (and more questions), as all good bibliographies should.

Further sources will be discussed and offered in plenary presentations and breakout sessions.

For more prompts - including film, journalism, blogs, images, organisations and more - head to the Residential's 'Prompts for Thinking' padlet.
