

HOMERTON COLLEGE
UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

2024 Composing Competition

Submissions are now open for Homerton College's 2024 Composing Competition.

The competition is open to all current students at the University of Cambridge.

Candidates are asked to submit a piece, up to five minutes in length, for two or three of the following instruments (in any combination):

- Piano
- Violin
- Viola
- Cello

Candidates should submit their work electronically as a PDF, with an optional accompanying text, to dt267@cam.ac.uk, by Thursday 28 March 2024. If possible, candidates are also asked to submit a midi recording of their work. The body of the email should state the candidate's name, subject, and college affiliation clearly, but no identifying information should be visible on the score, text, or midi file themselves.

The competition will be judged by Carol J Jones and John Hopkins.

The winning entry will be announced in April 2024, will receive a £200 prize and be performed at Homerton College in a concert on Sunday 16 June 2024. One runner-up prize of £50 is also available.
