Wednesday 27th September: ARRIVAL AND REGISTRATION

The Buttery will be open for refreshments from 8am-6pm and a hot meal can be purchased in the New Dining Hall between 12-2pm and from 5.30pm-7pm.

From 10.00am
Porters’ Lodge, Mary Allan Building

Travel Day – students start arriving

10.00am – 2.00pm
Boullind Room, Mary Allan Building (tbc)

College Registration
You should come to registration as soon as you can, following your arrival at the College and prior to collecting your room key. Students should bring a form of photographic ID, such as a driving licence or passport.

3.00pm – 5.00pm
(tbc)

HUS Event - Drop-in Scavenger Hunt (see HUS programme - optional)

3.15pm – 3.45pm
New Dining Hall

For students’ accompanying family/friends (optional): You are invited for tea and cake with the Principal and Senior Tutor. There will be a short address at 3.30pm.

4.00pm – 5.00pm
New Dining Hall

Library Induction for Economics students

Library Induction for Maths students

Thursday 28th September: COLLEGE INDUCTION

The Buttery will be open for refreshments from 8am-6pm. Breakfast (8am-10am), lunch (12-2pm) and dinner (5.30pm-7pm) can be purchased in the New Dining Hall.

9.30am – 10.30am
Great Hall

Welcome and Information Talk

Welcome
Paul Elliott (Admissions Tutor)

Introduction to college support and facilities
Penny Barton (Senior Tutor)
Sandy Chambers (Student Health Advisor)

10.30am – 11.00am
New Dining Hall

Refreshment Break – hot and cold drinks available for all

11.00am – 12.15pm
Great Hall

Fire, Safety and Security Talk
Chris Siebold (Head Porter)
Alice Bennett and Kevin Misik (Cambridgeshire Police)

12.30pm – 1.30pm

Break for lunch

1.40pm
West House

Fire Drill - compulsory for resident students
Please be in your room at 1.40pm.

2.30pm – 3.30pm
Great Hall

Homerton Changemakers
Academic Director: Alison Wood

3.30pm-3.45pm
Buttery or MAB foyer (tbc)

Refreshment station available – please collect a drink/snack to take along to your Tutor Meeting

3.45pm – 4.45pm
Various locations: see the email/letter from your Tutor

Meet your Tutor
Introduce yourself to your Tutor

5.00-7.00pm

Meet the HUS (see HUS programme for details)

Please check your HUS programme for more events!
Friday 29th September: WELLBEING AT UNIVERSITY

The Buttery will be open for refreshments from 8am-6pm. Breakfast (8am-10am), lunch (12-2pm) and dinner (5.30pm-6.30pm) can be purchased in the New Dining Hall.

See separate timetable

College Library Registration
This will take place by subject – see the separate library timetable for your particular subject arrangements.

Available between 8.30-9.30am
New Dining Hall

Wellbeing Breakfast (free for Freshers on production of the ticket from your welcome pack)

9.45am-11am
Great Hall

Wellbeing and Looking After Yourself
Penny Barton, Sandy Chambers, Catherine Snelson, Grace Hernandez and HUS Welfare Officers

11.15am-12pm
Great Hall

Drugs and Alcohol talk with Lucas Oliver

12pm-1pm
Break for lunch

1.05pm-2.35pm
2 sessions: North Wing Auditorium and Paston Brown

Diverse Training for all students (see HUS programme for details)
(please be careful to check the Library Induction programme to avoid a clash)

Saturday 30th September: ACADEMIC INDUCTION

The Buttery will be open for refreshments from 10am-6pm. Breakfast (8am-10am) and lunch (12-2pm) can be purchased in the New Dining Hall.

10.00am – 10.45am
Auditorium (tbc)

How to do well at Cambridge
Penny Barton and Louise Joy

10.45am – 11.30am
Auditorium (tbc)

Getting a head start: making the most of library resources
Rosie Austin, College

11.45am – 1.15pm
2 sessions: Bamford Room and the Drawing Room

Diverse Training for all students (see HUS programme for details)
(please be careful to check the Library Induction programme to avoid a clash)

12pm-2pm (tbc)

Lunch available in the New Dining Hall

1.30pm – 3.00pm
1 session: Bamford Room or the Drawing Room?

Diverse Training for all students (see HUS programme for details)
(please be careful to check the Library Induction programme to avoid a clash)

Please check your HUS programme for more events!
Start of Year Programme for Year One & Visiting Undergraduates 2023/2024

All events are compulsory unless otherwise stated

Sunday 1st October

Brunch will be available to purchase from the New Dining Hall between 11.30am-1.30pm.

Free-time and HUS Programme

Monday 2nd October

The Buttery and New Dining Hall will be open for standard term time hours

See separate timetable

College Library Registration
This will take place by subject - see separate timetable about your particular subject arrangements.

9.00am – 11.00am
Alison Shrubsole, Ibberson Building
Meeting for students reading Natural Sciences, Chemical Engineering and Biotechnology, Maths with Physics & Computer Sciences

Various
One-to-One Meeting with your Director of Studies (DoS)
(Your DoS will contact you with a time)

Various
One-to-One Meeting with your Tutor
(Your Tutor will contact you with a time)

Tuesday 3rd October: TERM BEGINS

The Buttery and New Dining Hall will be open for standard term time hours

See separate timetable

College Library Registration
This will take place by subject - see separate timetable about your particular subject arrangements

Various
One-to-One Meeting with your DoS (alternative day)
(Your DoS will contact you with a time)

Various
One-to-One Meeting with your Tutor (alternative day)
(Your Tutor will contact you with a time)

5.30pm
Principal’s Lawn
Matriculation Photograph for all Year One & Visiting Students
Assemble promptly on the Principal’s Lawn

7.00pm
Great Hall and the New Dining Hall
Matriculation Drinks Reception followed by Dinner

Wednesday 4th October

The Buttery and Hall will be open for standard term time hours

Exact time tbc (late afternoon/early evening)
Zoom Meeting ID:
Passcode:

Online Supervision Planning Meeting for students reading Natural Sciences, Chemical Engineering & Biotechnology, Maths with Physics

Thursday 5th October: LECTURES BEGIN

Please check your HUS programme for more events!
Start of Year Programme for Year One & Visiting Undergraduates 2023/2024

All events are compulsory unless otherwise stated

Please check your HUS programme for more events!